NASAAN NGA BA ANG HUSTISYA?

Sagot ni Ginoong Eduardo M. Cojuangco, Jr. sa bukas na liham ng mga naninindigan na sila ang may-ari ng coco levy funds

Upang mapanatili ang kanyasan sa ating lipunan, mayroon po tayong mga bansa na dapat pinapalupad at sinuunod.

Noong 1988, ipinalupad ang Executive Order No. 1 na nagpasag: "WHEREAS, vast resources of the government have been amassed by former President Ferdinand E. Marcos, his immediate family, relatives, and close associates both here and abroad."

Ipinag-uto nito ang paghahati sa dating Pangulong Ferdinand Marcos sa kanyang pamilya, mga kasama, at mga maaaring na kalibigan, na ipinaghiwalag ng pagkakaiba ng mga tag-aalal ng bansa sa panahon ng panunungkulan nito.

Sa panahong ang shares sa San Miguel Corporation (SMC) na nasa ating pag-ari ay bahagi ng mga tinatayang na "ill-gotten wealth", ako at ang mga kumpanyang ating pagmamay-ari ay sinampahan ng kaso (Civil Case 0033) noong Pebrero 31, 1987 upang tukuyan nang mapagkakataon ng gobyerno ang mga natirang shares.

Haydan rito pong isalaysay ko sa iyo kung paano lagay nabit ang mga shares na ito.

Ang mga SMC shares ay pagmamay-ari noon ng Ayala Corporation at ita pa, sa loob ni Enrique Zobel. Nang inag-dalasyon ang kumpanya na bente ang mga shares noong 1983 ay inakal ko ito sa akin at binili sa halagang high pa sa P22 per share, mas mataas sa umiiral na presyo noon sa stock market. Sa katunayan, ang halaga ng mga shares ay umabot sa 40 milyong dolyero.

Katutod ng ating nalipitnang, ang pinambili ng SMC shares ay hiniram mula sa iba't ibang mga pinagkaulangan, kasama ang UCPB, at hindi sa Coconut Industry Investment Fund (CIF), salungat sa pit na igiingit ng itan.

Nasa ko rin pong sabihin muli sa pagkakataong ito na ang pating pinahiram o pinaulatang ng bangko ay nangagaling sa kabuuan ng mga depositors na nag-iimpok dito o karamihan sa depositorang pangkalahatan. At ayon po sa ating baba, ang pating inutang o hiniram mula sa bangko, ay nagiging pagmamay-ari na ng nanghiram. Ang tanging obligasyon ng hiniram ay mabayaran ang UCPB sa hanggang inutang.

Sa kasong isinampi ng Office of the Solicitor General (DSG) at Presidential Commission on Good Government (PCGG) noong 1987, pinili nito na pondo ng CIF ang ginamit sa pagbili ng SMC shares.

Malapas po ang maraming taon ng paglilita ay kinatigan ako ng Sandiganbayan, at makalipas ang high-kumulang na 24 taon, ang Korte Suprema ay nagbigay ng desasyon na tumang-ayon at nagpaad na walang katibayan na ang SMC shares ay binayaran mula sa pens o pondo na galing sa CIF kaya lutyang pinawalang halaga ang demands ng PCGG at DSG.

Malapas na pang nalipitnang ng bui ang pagkakataong sa UCPB, na nagmula noon, at hanggang ngayon, ay nasa balin ng pamamahala ng PCGG. Sa katunayan, bago pa man magbaba ng desasyon ang hukuman biniglit sa mga kaso, ay itanim muna ng PCGG at DSG na hiniram nga sa UCPB ang pating pinambayad sa SMC shares.

Ngunit ang hindi ko po mamindihan, ay kung bakit maliban ko buong katibayan sa halagang hiniram ay gusto pa nilang matukha ang SMC shares na kaniyang pinag-aalanganan. Simple lamang po ang dahilan na ating nakikita. Simula po ng aring pamamahala sa San Miguel, high na malabo na ang dinat ng halaga ng SMC shares, kumpara sa presyo hangang una tong binili. Iti po ang buong katibayan.

Marumi na po ang bumabok sa desasyon ng Supreme Court, na nagsabi ring walang abidenyong napelita ang DSG at PCGG na ako ay isang "close associate" ng dating Pangulong Marcos. Ngunit ang hindi pri napagkukunan ng pectin ay ang ibig sabihin ng "close associate" sa kasong ito. Hindi po ito nangangahulugang katibala o malapit na kalibigan lamang, kundi "close associate" o kasama sa paghural ng mga government assets na napapasaalam sa Executive Order No. 1.

Sa puntong ito, nasa kung bagyang-din na walang anumang partisipasyon ang dating pangulong Marcos sa pagbili ko ng San Miguel shares. Yun lamang, nakalungkot na ang dissenting opinion ni Justice Morales ay nagdulot ng pag-aalangan sa mamili.

Sa pagtatapos, nasa ko pong sabihin at para na rin sa kasamaan ng media, na may 31% ng San Miguel Corporation ang nabit sa loob ng ating pamamahala ng CIF para sa kasamaan ng mga coconut farmers, kasama na rin ang UCPB, at mla at Coconut na hanggang ngayon ay pag-ari ng CIF.

Ang iyo po ddo ay kung ang natirang mga shares sa San Miguel, UCPB, at mla at Coconut ay pagmamay-ari ng gobyerno o ng coconut farmers. Ang resolyon po ay narananay sa kung idedaklarang public o private funds ng coconut farmers ang CIF.

Ang CIF ay matagal ko ng sinamit na hindi ko pag-ari, iti ay natatani para sa mga coconut farmers na syang tinukoy ita benetinyayto.

Pero sa kasamaan ng mga coconut farmers, ang mga SMC shares ng CIF ay lutyang kumakita ng cash dividends na nakadeposito sa UCPB. Ang halaga ng nakadeposito mula 1990 ay umabot na ng humigit kumulang na P17.5 bilyong piso base sa mga dividends dinaklaro ng SMC. Pero na mga kumakawadong sa natirang SMC stocks, dapat lamang na tumingin nito ang PCGG kung bakit hindi ito inakalaba ng bangko para sa kaniyang kasamaan.

Ang masakit rito ay nananatili sa akin pa rin naku-unang ang paghahalat ng mga nagdudunung-dunung sa katibala ng presyo ng mga korta. Anumang halat ng hukuman — mula sa mababa hanggang na katibala-katibala ng hukuman — ay pinaglibay ng batas base sa mga katibayang natirang.

Huwag sana tayong inaging bulag sa katataganan at sa batas na syang dapat umiiral sa ating lipunan.

Technology a threat to Santa Claus

For many years, Santa Claus has been a figure of mystery and magic. But in recent years, the legend has been threatened by the advances of technology. Some believe that the use of modern transportation and communication tools has stripped Santa of his magical powers. Others argue that technology has simply changed the way Santa operates, rather than destroying him altogether.

Some of the most common arguments against Santa's existence in the modern age are based on the logistics of his journey. How, for example, can he visit every child on Earth in a single night? And how does he manage to deliver his gifts without being seen?

Proponents of Santa's existence often respond to these arguments by claiming that his magic is a form of advanced technology. They suggest that Santa's reindeer are actually high-speed aircraft, and his sleigh is a state-of-the-art delivery vehicle.

Despite the skepticism, the belief in Santa Claus remains a popular part of Christmas tradition. For many children, the idea of a magical figure bringing them gifts is a central part of the holiday's magic. And for adults, the story of Santa Claus is a reminder of the joy and generosity of the season.

As technology continues to advance, the debate over Santa's existence will likely continue. But one thing is certain: the story of Santa Claus will remain a beloved part of our culture for many years to come.

The debate over Santa Claus's existence is a reflection of the tension between tradition and modernity. While some see technology as a threat to the magic of Santa, others see it as a way to enhance the holiday experience. The truth is, the story of Santa Claus is a timeless one, and its magic will endure as long as we believe in it.

Clinton Suu Kyi vows democracy for Burma

Former President Bill Clinton has pledged to support the democratic aspirations of the Burmese people. In a recent speech, Clinton expressed his admiration for Suu Kyi and her commitment to freedom and human rights. He stated that the United States will continue to work with the Burmese government to promote a peaceful and democratic transition of power.

Suu Kyi, seen here, is a prominent Burmese leader.

Clinton's support for Suu Kyi and the Burmese people's desire for democracy is a testament to the power of the American example. He emphasized that the United States will stand with the Burmese people in their quest for a better future, one of peace and freedom.

The Clinton administration's commitment to democracy in Burma is a key part of its foreign policy. By supporting Suu Kyi and the democratic movement, the United States is sending a clear message to the Burmese people that their voices are heard and their rights are valued.

Clinton's speech was a significant moment in the ongoing dialogue between the United States and Burma. It reaffirmed the United States' commitment to human rights and democratic principles, and it provided a platform for Clinton to express his personal support for Suu Kyi and the Burmese people's struggle for freedom.

The Clinton administration's support for democracy in Burma is a reflection of the United States' long-standing commitment to human rights. By standing with Suu Kyi and the Burmese people, the United States is demonstrating its leadership in the global fight for freedom and justice.

Clinton's speech was a powerful statement of solidarity with the Burmese people. It reminded the world of the importance of democracy and human rights, and it inspired the Burmese people to continue their fight for a better future.

The Clinton administration's support for democracy in Burma is a testament to the power of the American example. By supporting Suu Kyi and the democratic movement, the United States is sending a clear message to the Burmese people that their voices are heard and their rights are valued.

Karma or revenge?

In Arroyo's shadow

Imagine the scene: a woman in a white dress, standing in the middle of a large crowd, holding a microphone and addressing the people. This is the scene that unfolded in the heart of Manila last night as the former first lady, Gloria Macapagal Arroyo, made her first public appearance since her resignation.

At the time, the crowd was estimated to be one of the largest in the history of the Philippines, with thousands of people gathered to witness the former first lady's return to the public eye.

But what was the reason for her return? Was it a sign of reconciliation with the people? Or was it a sign of her return to the political stage?

Whatever the reason, the former first lady's return to the public eye was a significant event in the history of the Philippines. It was a moment that had been longed for by many people, and it was a moment that had been watched by millions of people around the world.

But what does the future hold for the former first lady? Will she continue to be a prominent figure in Philippine politics? Or will she fade into obscurity?

Only time will tell. But one thing is certain: the former first lady's return to the public eye was a moment that will be remembered for years to come.

As the former first lady's return to the public eye unfolded, the crowd grew larger and larger. People were standing on their heads, and others were jumping up and down in excitement.

Gov't pours P2.85B into road projects in ARMM

Globe, Apple exclusivity deal ends. Smart offers iPhone 4S

By Peter G. Marquardt

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — The Philippine government has approved a P2.85-billion (US$560-million) road project in the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM), the first of its kind in the region. The project, which is part of a larger P10-billion road program, will be implemented by the ARMM Development Office (ARMMDO) and the Department of Transportation (DOTr). The project will include the construction of 100 kilometers of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure. The ARMMDO is currently in the process of preparing the project's feasibility study and environmental impact assessment. The DOTr is expected to release the project's final budget and implementation schedule in the coming months.

Construction workers are seen working on a road project in the ARMM.

The project is expected to create thousands of jobs and improve the region's infrastructure. The ARMMDO is currently in the process of preparing the project's feasibility study and environmental impact assessment. The DOTr is expected to release the project's final budget and implementation schedule in the coming months.

Smart Communications Inc. has announced that it will offer the iPhone 4S to its subscribers. The offer is part of a new partnership between Smart and Apple. Smart subscribers who have a 1-year contract with the company will be able to get the iPhone 4S for a discounted price. The offer is available to subscribers who are currently using the Smart prepaid service. Smart is expected to launch the offer in the coming months.

Homebuyers urged to take right step with Amaia Nova

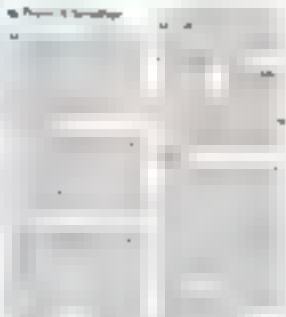

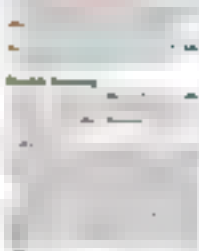

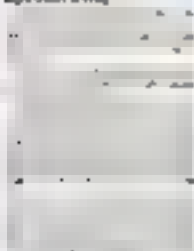

By Thomas A. Robinson

The Amaia Nova development in the heart of the city is a prime example of how a well-planned residential project can transform an urban area. The project, which is currently under construction, is set to be completed by the end of the year. The development is a mix of residential and commercial units, and is expected to attract a wide range of buyers. The project is a testament to the city's commitment to sustainable development and to providing high-quality housing for its residents.

Christmas starts at Century Park

After the first of the season, the city's first Christmas celebration is set for Dec. 1 at Century Park. The event, which is free and open to the public, will feature a variety of activities, including a parade, a fireworks display, and a Christmas tree lighting ceremony. The celebration will also include a variety of food and drink options, as well as a variety of entertainment options. The event is expected to draw a large crowd of people, and it is hoped that it will be a successful start to the Christmas season in the city.

Police inspired by Penny Jones' Placards

The city's police department has been inspired by the work of Penny Jones, a local artist who has created a series of placards for the city's police officers. The placards, which are made of wood and feature a variety of designs, are being used by the police officers as a way to show their appreciation for the community. The police department has also been inspired by the work of Penny Jones in other ways, including by her use of local materials and her focus on creating art that is both functional and beautiful. The police department is hoping that the placards will help to build a stronger relationship between the police and the community, and that they will be a source of pride for the officers.

Budgeting is 'Christmas' among early scrubs

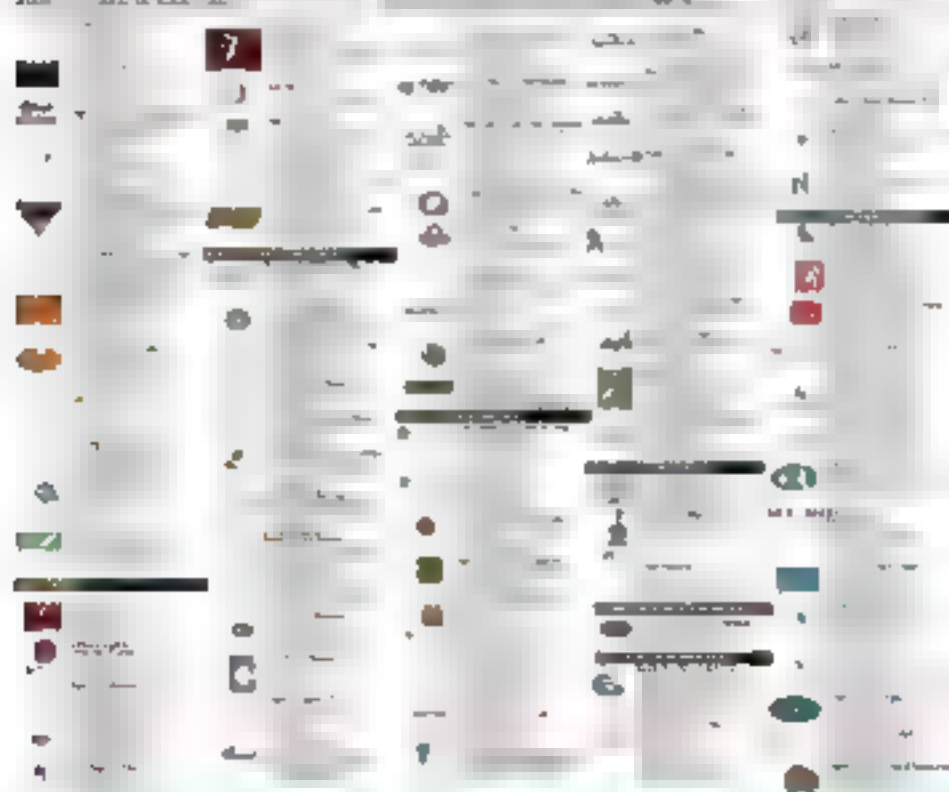

For many young doctors, the first year of residency is a time of financial stress. With a limited budget and a lot of expenses, it can be difficult to make ends meet. However, there are a few ways to save money and make the most of your budget. One of the most important things is to create a budget. This will help you to see where your money is going and to make adjustments as needed. Another way to save money is to cook at home. This is often cheaper than eating out, and it allows you to control the quality of the food. Finally, it's important to be mindful of your spending. This means avoiding unnecessary purchases and finding ways to save on everyday expenses. By following these tips, you can make the most of your budget and avoid the financial stress that so many young doctors experience.

Discover a sense of peace, purpose

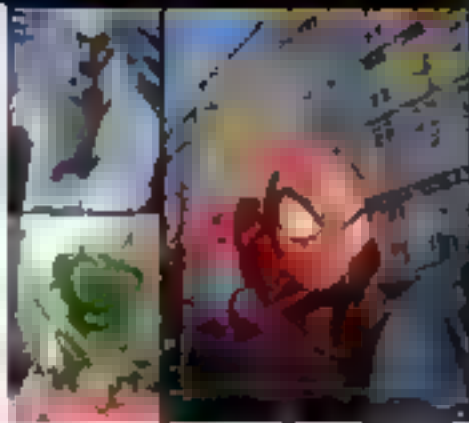

For many people, the holiday season is a time of reflection and a chance to find a sense of peace and purpose. This can be achieved in a variety of ways, including by spending time with loved ones, by volunteering, or by taking a break from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. The holiday season is a time when we can slow down and appreciate the things that are truly important in life. It is a time when we can connect with others and share our experiences. It is a time when we can find a sense of meaning and purpose in our lives. By taking the time to reflect and to connect with others, we can discover a sense of peace and purpose that will last throughout the year.

The World Today

Figure 1 consists of a 4x4 grid of 16 micrographs. The columns are labeled '0', '10', '20', and '30' at the top, representing concentrations of 0, 10, 20, and 30 mg/L of 2,4-D. The rows are labeled '0', '10', '20', and '30' on the left, representing concentrations of 0, 10, 20, and 30 mg/L of 2,4-D. The micrographs show the growth of P. putida on a medium. As the concentration of 2,4-D increases in both the rows and columns, the bacterial growth is visibly inhibited, resulting in smaller and fewer colonies.

Maya Mico and the unwanted CHRISTMAS child

By Maya Mico

It was a cold, dark night in the heart of Manila. The city lights were visible through the window of the small, cluttered room. Maya Mico, a young woman with long dark hair, sat on the edge of her bed, looking out at the city with a sad expression. She was alone, and the silence was heavy. She thought about the Christmas child she had been told about, a child who was unwanted and alone. She felt a pang of sympathy for the child, and she wondered if she could help. She looked at her phone, which was lit up with a picture of a Christmas tree. She smiled slightly, remembering the times she had spent with her family. But now, she was alone. She looked back at the city, and she felt a sense of hope. She knew that she could make a difference, and she was determined to do so. She picked up her phone and dialed a number. She waited for a moment, and then she spoke. "Hello, I need your help. I have a Christmas child who is unwanted and alone. Can you help me find a home for him?" She listened to the person on the other end of the line, and she felt a sense of relief. She knew that she was not alone, and she was determined to help the child. She hung up the phone and looked at her phone again. She smiled, and she felt a sense of hope. She knew that she could make a difference, and she was determined to do so.

My formative years in theater brought enriching experiences

By Kevin Connolly

My father, a theater producer, encouraged me to pursue theater from a young age. He was a huge influence on my life, and his passion for the arts was contagious. I remember being in the audience at the age of five, watching a performance that left me in awe. The energy of the stage, the dedication of the performers, it all felt like a magical world. As I grew older, my father's guidance became even more important. He taught me the value of hard work, the importance of collaboration, and the joy of creating something beautiful. His influence is still with me today, shaping the way I approach my career and my life.

Doris Day

Doris Day was a true icon of the mid-20th century. Her charm, wit, and talent made her a beloved figure in the film industry. From her early days in radio to her breakthrough in film, she never lost sight of her roots. Her performances were a blend of humor and heart, and her influence on the industry is still felt today. She was a woman who knew how to shine, and her legacy is a testament to her enduring talent and grace.

Filipino films screened in L.A. festival

The L.A. festival is a celebration of Filipino cinema, showcasing a variety of films that highlight the rich cultural heritage and talent of the Philippines. From classic films to contemporary works, the festival offers a unique opportunity for audiences to experience the diversity of Filipino film. It is a testament to the growing recognition of Filipino cinema on the international stage and a platform for Filipino filmmakers to share their stories with the world.

Power and its consequences

Jessica Chastain on nudity, Al Pacino

Jessica Chastain's performance in 'The Way, Way Back' was a bold and powerful statement. Her decision to be nude in the film was a testament to her artistry and her commitment to telling a story that was both honest and impactful. Her collaboration with Al Pacino was a masterclass in acting, and their chemistry on screen was undeniable. Chastain's performance is a reminder of the power of film to challenge our perceptions and to inspire us to see the world in a new light.

The festival is a testament to the power of film to bring people together and to celebrate the diversity of our world. It is a platform for filmmakers to share their stories and for audiences to experience the magic of cinema. The festival is a celebration of the art of film and a testament to the enduring power of the medium.
